Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Yao (US6392198).

Yao discloses an electric heat sealer comprising a first arm (11) having a T-shaped profile, a left and right end, a handhold portion (Figures 1-2), a receiving chamber (1), and a coupling (12), an electric heating element (4) installed in receiving chamber of the first arm (Figure 2), a second arm (21) having a T-shaped profile, a left and right end, a handhold portion (Figures 1-2), and a coupling structure (Figures 1-2) pivotally coupled to the first arm such that first and second arm move relative to each other to force heating member against the workpiece therebetween (Figures 1-2; column 2, lines 27-32).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3742

4. Claims 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yao as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of Chou (US5854466).

Yao discloses all of the recited subject matter except a coupling comprised of a male pivot means and a female pivot means. Chou discloses a coupling comprised of a male pivot means (221) and a female pivot means (12). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have included the male/female pivot means of Chou in the apparatus of Yao because, a male/female pivot means allows the electric heater to be open/closed more efficiently.

Yao in view of Chou discloses all the claimed invention except for the combined length of the left and right end portions being within 6-10 cm. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have included a combined length of the left and right end portions being within 6-10 cm, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 2-5 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art of record neither discloses nor suggests an operation case having a receiving chamber adapted to receive the first and second arm and an opening through which the handhold portions of the first and second arms are insertable into the receiving chamber of the operation case.

Conclusion

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Shawntina T. Fuqua whose telephone number is (703) 305-2581. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday 8-4:30 pm.
